1. Write a summary of the book.
2. Write a paragraph telling about your favorite part.
3. Write a paragraph telling about your favorite character.
4. Draw a picture of your favorite part with a sentence telling what it is and why you chose it.
5. Draw a picture of your favorite character with a sentence telling why you chose this character.
6. Write a sequel to this book using the same characters and same setting.
7. Write a sequel to this book introducing new characters and a new setting.

Writing Center
Contract

Choose any two of the activities listed below. When you finish your activities, staple this contract to your activities and put them in the language hand-in.

I am choosing to do activities _____ & _____.
Student signature _____

1. Write an original poem of at least 12 lines. Put your poem on a sheet of white drawing paper and illustrate it, or put an attractive border around it. Make sure to include your name as the author.
2. Write an original science fiction story. Create your own special characters and places. Your story should be about 1 page long. Illustration(s) are optional.
3. Write a friendly letter to me, making sure that you follow the official friendly letter form. I promise to answer all letters. ☺
4. Make a "Sunday comic" (one that is multiple frame and in color). Create your own characters! Your comic may be funny, or it may be a story in comic form.

*All written pieces should be in final copy form when they are turned in. Please see me if you need assistance in editing.

Center Spelling

The purpose of this center will be to learn to spell some more challenging words than the core words. You will find a list of 25 words. You may choose any 2 of the activities listed below. Remember to do your best work. Your work will need to be neatly done.

I am choosing to do activities _____ & _____.
Student signature _____

1. Write each word in regular or alphabetical order.
2. Write a poem or story using these words. Underline the words in your story or poem.
3. Write each word 3 times.
4. Do the puzzles for these words (get these from Mrs. Horzmann)
5. Write each word and draw a picture to go with it.

Example: enjoy ☺
