Ways to Practice Your Vocabulary Words

Directions:

Here are your vocabulary words and activities for the week. You must complete one activity every night. Remember to write your name, number, date and the name of the activity at the top of the page. Write in your neatest handwriting!

Weekly Words:

1. glanced
2. comfort
3. longed
4. contagious
5. prescription
6. attention
7. unexpected

Choices:

1. Write each word with its definition. You may use a dictionary, but the definition must be in your own words.
2. Use each word in an original sentence and underline the vocabulary word. Someone who has never seen the vocabulary word before should be able to figure out the word meaning based on the sentence.
3. Write the words and a synonym OR antonym for each word.
4. Cut the words out of a magazine or newspaper and make a collage.
5. Locate your words in a book (other than Trophies). Write the title, page number, and sentence where you found each word. (Find at least four of the words.)
6. Illustrate the words and hide the words in the picture.
7. Write a story using all of your vocabulary words and underline each word. Someone who has never heard the words before should be able to figure out what the words mean by reading the story.
8. Write a poem with all of the words and underline the vocabulary words in the poem.
9. Create a comic strip using the words.
10. Write newspaper headlines using the words.
11. Classify each word according to its part of speech (noun, verb, adjective, adverb).
